PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS.

TO OUR READERS.

The Bulletin makes its best bow and returns thanks for the liberal favors extended to it during the week just past. It hopes its advertisers have reaped rich rewards, and that its readers generally have been benefited. To one and all it wishes a merry Christmas.

God bless the little stockings
On the wall to-morrow night,
Hung in the choicest corners,
In the glow of crimson light.
The tiny, scarlet stockings
With a hole in the heel and toe
Worn by the wonderful journeys,
The darling's have to go.

PRACTICE writing it "1883."

DEALERS in holiday good are as busy as bees to-day.

THE Knights of honor of Maysville number seventy-two.

MRS. DAVID GREEN, an old resident of this neighborhood, died yesterday morning.

H. B. NORTHCOFF, the great turkey destroyer, has killed between 4,000 and 5,000 of these fowls this season.

MR. J. F. CALVERT, who has been absent for several years, on a cruise around the world, is at home again.

THE Morning Mail went to Portsmouth last night in the place of the Bonanza. She will return to her regular trade on Monday.

THOSE who are searching for beautiful and useful holiday gifts will find a choice assortment at Mrs. A. J. Williams' dry goods store.

THE DAILY BULLETIN will not be issued on Monday. This is because printers like to celebrate Christmas the same as everybody else.

JAMES H. HALL, JR., was the lucky winner of Mrs. Jennie Whitaker's fine sketch of the Adirondack Falls, raffled on Friday evening.

NEW goods are still arriving at Albert's china palace, to take the place of those continually being carried off by those who throng this popular store.

MR. TYRE FULTON, the artist, has just finished a very life-like portrait of Miss Kate Tabb, daughter of Charles Tabb, of this city. It may be seen at J. C. Pecor &amp; Co.'s drug store.

THE marriage of Miss Anna Douglas January to Stanley Fleetwood, of Chicago, will take place at the residence of Hon. Robert A. Cochran, on Wednesday evening January 30th, at nine o'clock.

THE leading Cincinnati architects who have examined the pressed brick made by A. C. Sphar &amp; Co., of this city, say they are the best they have ever seen. The firm will manufacture them largely next year.

A. C. SPHAR &amp; Co. sold a few days ago 100,000 brick to be used in the construction of the new custom house at Cincinnati. The contractors think Maysville brick are the best they have used. The lot just sold will be shipped immediately.

THE bigotry and malice which Senator Logan is displaying in his opposition to the rendering of justice to General Fitz John Porter, are not the qualities which are apt to commend an alleged statesman as a presidential candidate: They do not mix well with broad and liberal statesmanship.

THE "Belles of the Kitchen" met at Fern Leaf last night and astonished with their culinary skill a number of Maysville boys who were fortunate enough to be present. Miss Evelyn Smith, the president, presided gracefully and she is the best head the club has ever had or ever will have—so says an enthusiastic admirer.

Notice to Oddfellows.

All of the members of De Kalk Lodge, No. 12, are requested to be at their hall on Tuesday evening. The members of Ringgold Lodge are also invited to be present.
BYRON RUDY, N. G.

GOVERNOR STEPHENS, of Georgia, is said to be discharging his official duties with marked ability and care, with the closest personal attention to every detail. He has no red tape, no circumlocution. His office hours are all the hours of the day, and he listens patiently to everyone of the many visitors that constantly hang about his rooms.

A NOVEL way to send silver coin by mail is described as follows: "Take a block of wood a little larger than the coin and bore it with an auger—2½ inches for a dollar, 1½ for a half dollar and one inch for a quarter. Bore the hole as deep as will contain as many pieces as you want to send. Fill the hole and and tack a thin piece of wood over the block. Write the address, put on the requisite stamp and deposit the block and contents in the postoffice."

A VERY pleasant affair occurred on Friday at the public school in East Maysville, the presentation by the pupils of holiday gifts to the principal, the assistant teachers and the janitor, as has been the custom for years past. The presents were handsome and much appreciated by those who received them.

At the close of the session of the high school on the same day, a lunch was given by the young lady pupils which was much enjoyed by all present.

THROUGH the able efforts of Republican senators, Mr. Beck's resolution to inquire into Jay Hubbell's mode of "raising the wind" and controlling elections by the use of money, has been virtually killed. The "grand old party" is great on "a free ballot and a fair count," but when it comes to inquiry into the manner in which they are secured, they object. Perhaps the Republican leaders do not want to give a good thing away.

A Model Poet Says:

Long had I looked and searched and sought,
Both Stoves and Ranges, too, I bought;
And every kind on earth I tried,
And yet with none felt satisfied,
Hope shed at last one dazzling ray,
The "Omaha" I saw one day;
I found at length the thing I sought—
I went—examined it—and bought.

CHORUS.
The "Omaha!" The "Omaha!"
To buy it is house-keeping law,
Search through the north, south, east and west,
The "Omaha" you'll find THE BEST.

A. J. EGNEW &amp; CO.
